

Headteacher: Alison Lusuardi

The Langley Academy is a unique academy and serves the young people of Langley, Slough and further afield. Housed in an iconic building, designed by Foster and Partners, it is the UK's first Museum School and has a museum within the building, specialises in Science, pioneers the use of museum learning and aims to become a centre of excellence for sports, notably rowing and cricket.

Head of Year – Raising Standards Leader

Teachers' Mainscale L2-7 (plus fringe)

Are you passionate about educating through curiosity, exploration and discovery? Do you share our vision of outstanding education and exceptional enrichment activities? Are you looking for an innovative new challenge? Have a look at this short clip of The Langley Academy to see for yourself what an inspiring learning environment it is to work in <http://www.langleyacademy.org/videos/tlvideo2017.html>.

We are seeking to appoint a Head of Year (Raising Standards Leader) to work in The Langley Academy Secondary. You will be part of the strategic team of the Academy, as well as having a particular set of responsibilities attached to a year group, which will be decided on appointment, and will take into account the current strengths and skill sets of members of the team.

Are you looking for a significant leadership role? The successful candidate will be supported by the Trust to bring their skills, knowledge and experience to affect a continuing programme of rapid school improvement. The successful candidate will provide outstanding leadership with a strong professional track record and work alongside our Headteacher and the Senior Leadership Team to develop a shared vision for learning.

(Opportunity to access an excellent L3 leadership programme through the apprenticeship levy).
